PRESENTS:

EXECUTIVE FOCUS

thought leadership series

published by

Information Today, Inc.

executivefocus

Speech Technology continues to provide you with a variety of options to promote your company's products and services. The Executive Focus allows you to highlight a C-Level executive from your company along with your corporate messaging.

Speech Technology allows just one Executive Focus per issue.

Share your message

Designed as a Q&A or sponsored content, you will have the opportunity to share your C-Level executive's targeted message with subscribers who are looking for solutions. This is a great chance to reach out to potential customers during their decision-making process.

Great exposure

We offer multiple viewing options to our subscribers and you get coverage in all three!

- Print
- Digital
- Online (Magazine and on the Executive Profile Page)

In addition, Executive Focus will be promoted in ST eWeekly and highlighted in the Speech Technology digital magazine announcement to coincide with the release of each issue.

Space is limited to one Executive Focus per issue so please contact us today for your reservation.

Kick-Start Your Message

Need help getting started?

Below are examples of questions that can help you structure your message.

- What's ahead for contact centers? What's the next big thing?
- Can you share how customers have leveraged the technology and the results they have received?
- What do you anticipate will be your "hot" applications in the upcoming year?
- What applications are achieving the highest level of interest from your users?
- Have users' selection criteria/requirements changed over the past year? If so, how?
- What do you consider to be your major challenges in the upcoming year?
- What types of services does your company offer? What services have sparked the most interest from your clients over the past year?
- There are several companies that offer similar services. How do you differentiate yourself from your competitors?
- What selection criteria would you suggest a company use when choosing a vendor?
- Does your company plan to expand its applications suite? If so, what additional offerings can we expect from you in the near future?
- What recent trends do you believe have impacted our industry? What trends do you foresee for our industry over the next 12 months?
- What are the greatest challenges facing contact centers today? How is your company helping the contact center address those challenges?
